We thank You, God, for the great Lone Star State—a place rich in heritage, wealthy in the cultural diversity of its people, and vast in its resources. Thank You, Father, for Texas—its past, present, and future. And it's for that purpose we have gathered—to shape a better tomorrow for our State and to build a stronger base for its people to prosper and to live.

Father, guide each man and woman as they make those strategic decisions that will influence so many lives. Let Your providential hand guide the Senators and Representatives to the best outcome. Father, I pray for each Senator and Representative and their families. Thank You for their commitment of time and talent. Lead them to fulfill their dreams for a better Texas for everyone.

Father, I pray for the millions of Texans who are represented by these Senators. I pray for the mending of broken families, the healing of broken hearts. The needs are vast with so many families touched by the hard economic times or just personal needs. But, Father, it is through Your abundance and the sensitivity of these men and women that many needs will be met. Father, we thank You for the gifts which we enjoy already, and let us share these special gifts with others.

Father, thank You for the very special gift of Jesus Christ, and it's in His name that I pray. Amen.
